

A photograph of a woman with glasses and a polka-dot headband leaning over a table, looking at a book with three young children. The children are also looking at the book. The image is overlaid with a semi-transparent teal color.

Working With Children

A free six week course for parents.

A fun interactive training workshop to introduce people to the basic skills and knowledge to work with children under 5.

Areas covered include: Child development through stages, introducing safeguarding, equality and diversity in the child care setting, understanding and strategies to manage children's behaviour.

The course runs on Thursdays from 4th January to 8th February 2018 between 11.30 and 13.15. For more information please pop in and talk to the centre staff, email communityvisioncfc@bromley.gov.uk, call 0208 778 2970, or visit www.bromley.gov.uk/bromleychildrenproject